Class of '67 Song

"Class of sixty-seven, true we'll ever be
To our grand ole high school, all those memories.
Our twelve years have ended, now our future lies
In the paths of knowledge, they will guide us all our lives.
A life that will need all the faith that we have,
May this faith lead us on to unlimited goals.
Class of sixty-seven, onward push our dreams.
Follow God forever, 'til our years shall end."

(To the music of "Climb Every Mountain")

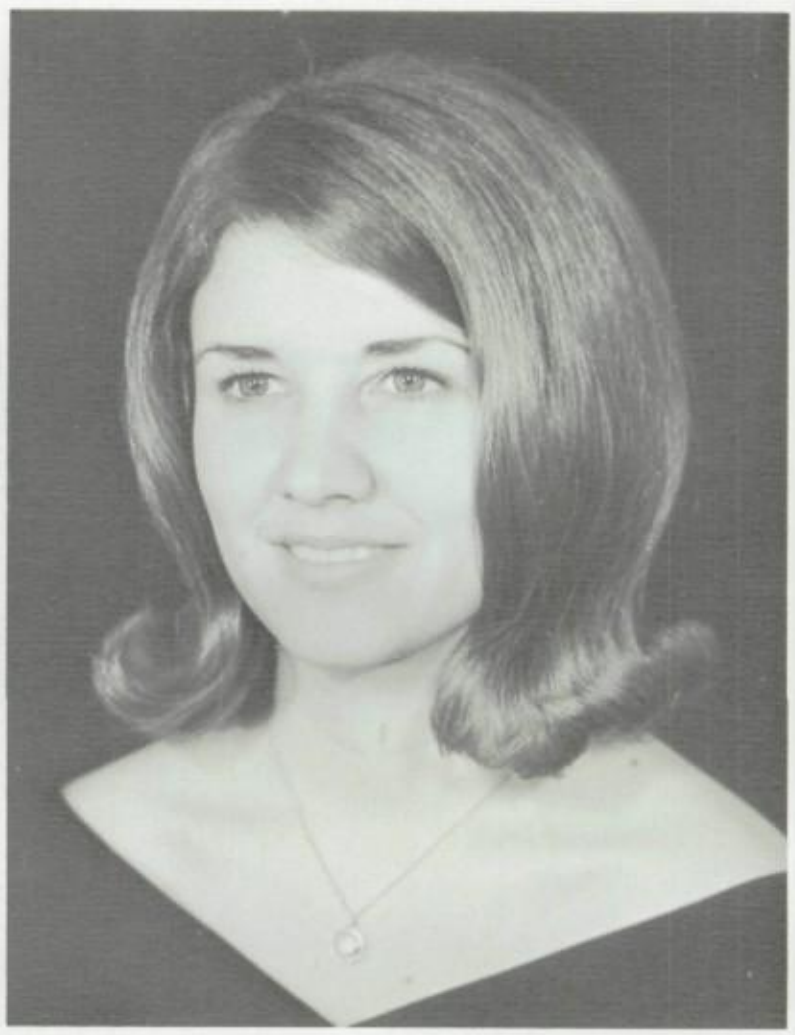
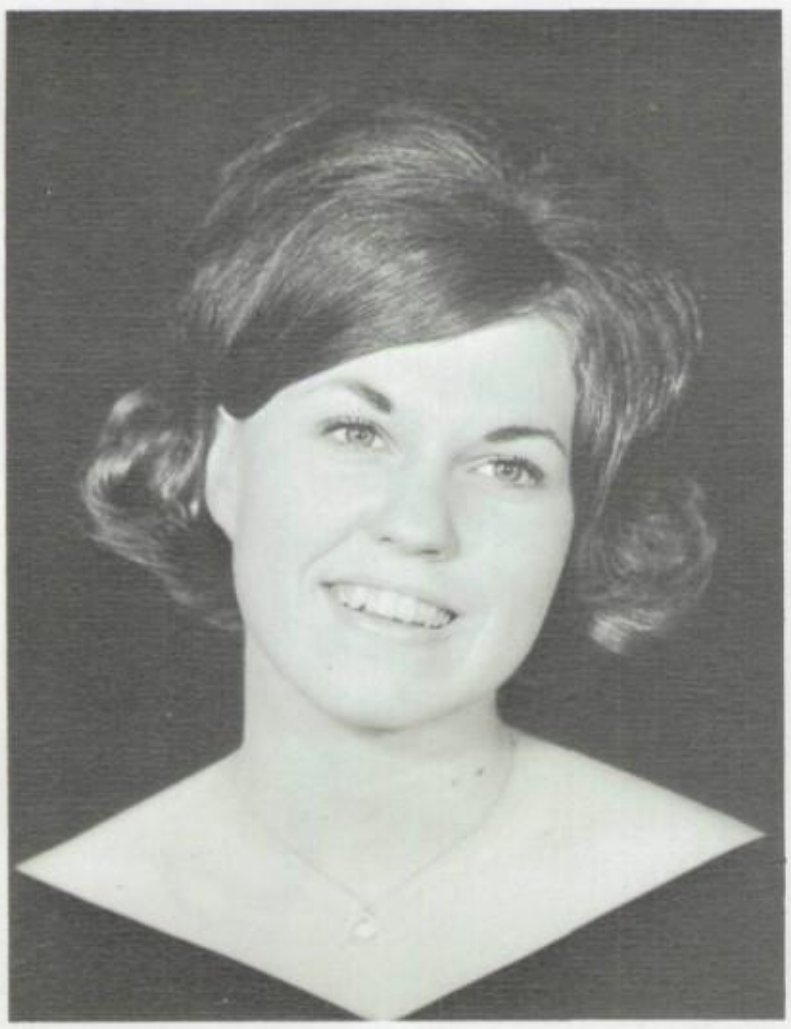
DONNA BUCKLEY



CHARLENE HUGHES



CATHY GIBSON

PATTY FLORA

We shall long remember Mary Holdren not only as the sweetheart of Homecoming 1966, but also as the most delightful, unpretentious female ever to represent our school. Her outward beauty is merely a reflection of her inward loveliness which endears her to everyone.

During half-time ceremonies in the Belpre - St. Aloysious game, anticipation mounts as the new queen is announced.

Autumn Leaves

Latin Banquet

S.P.Q.R.

The seniors after long hours of hard work, presented their play, A ROCKET IN HIS POCKET, April 21, 1967.

Charlie King, as Mr. Agnew, a mild-mannered school teacher, led the cast in the wild onstage riots. Ed Barnhart followed close behind him, shouting his favorite line, "We'll all be killed!" It's fortunate Miss Ross and Mrs. Smith were able to survive the mad rehearsals, because they were indispensable opening night. Donna Buckley was a real help as student director. It was a great performance.

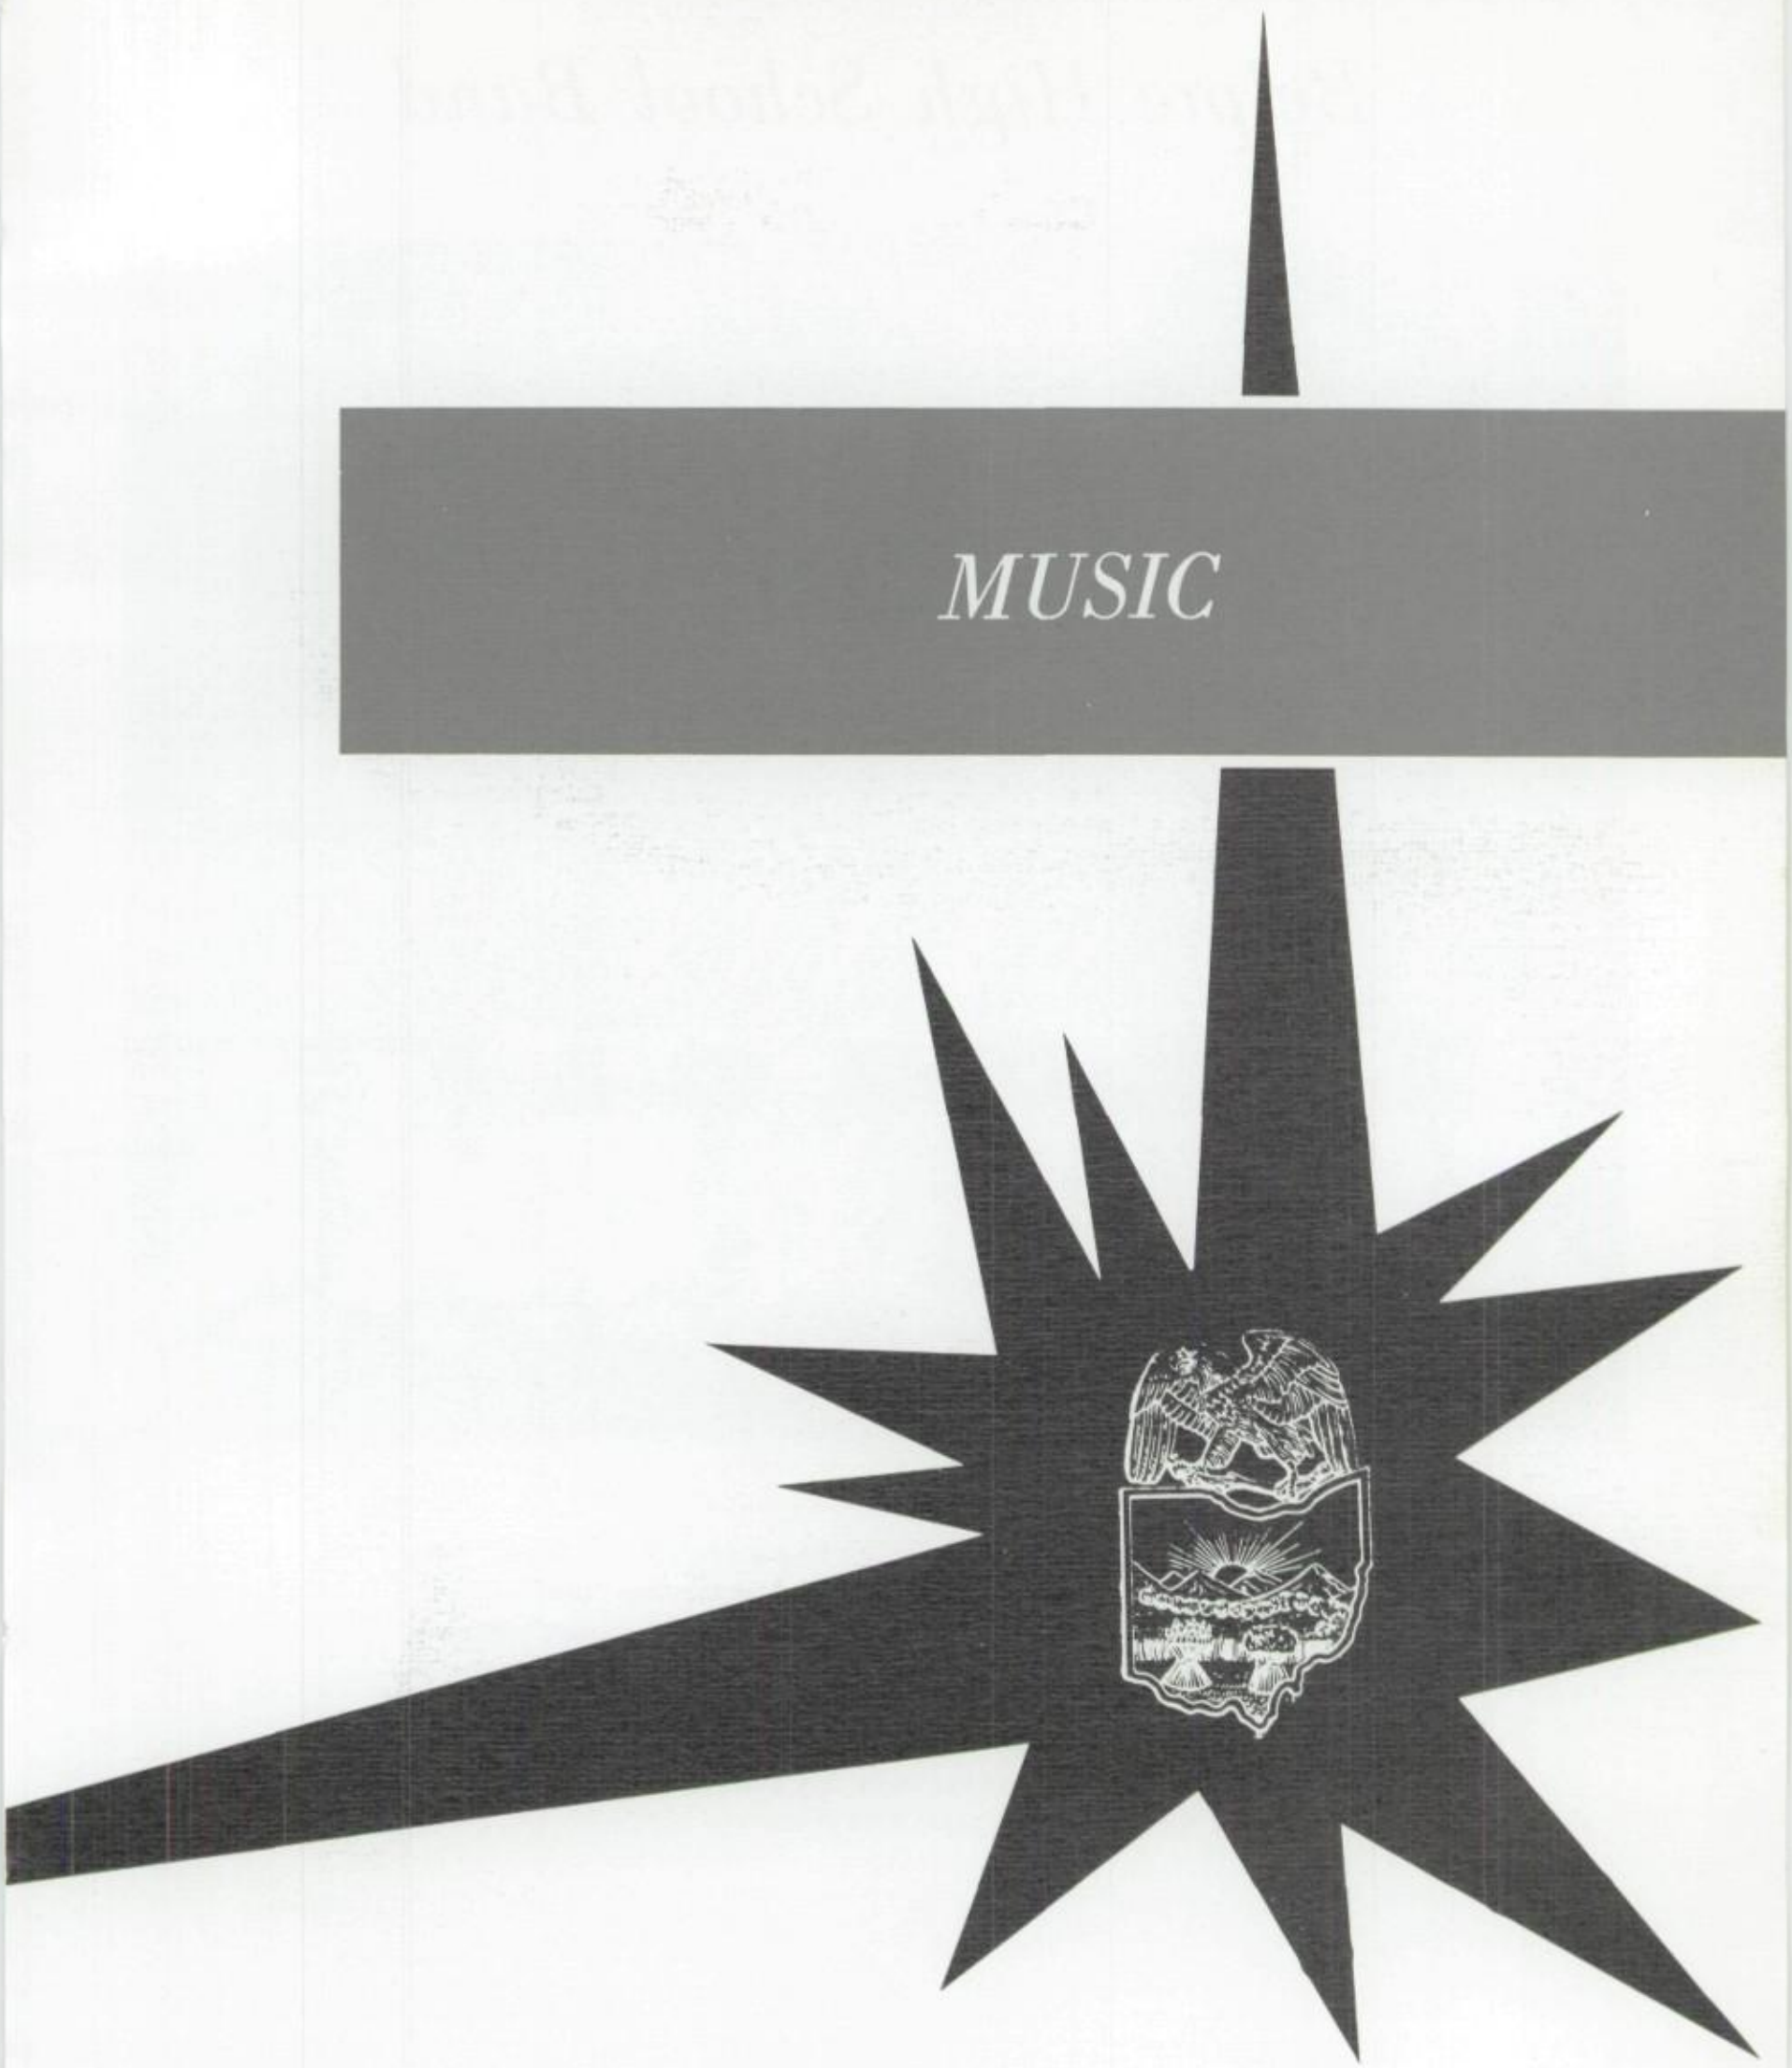
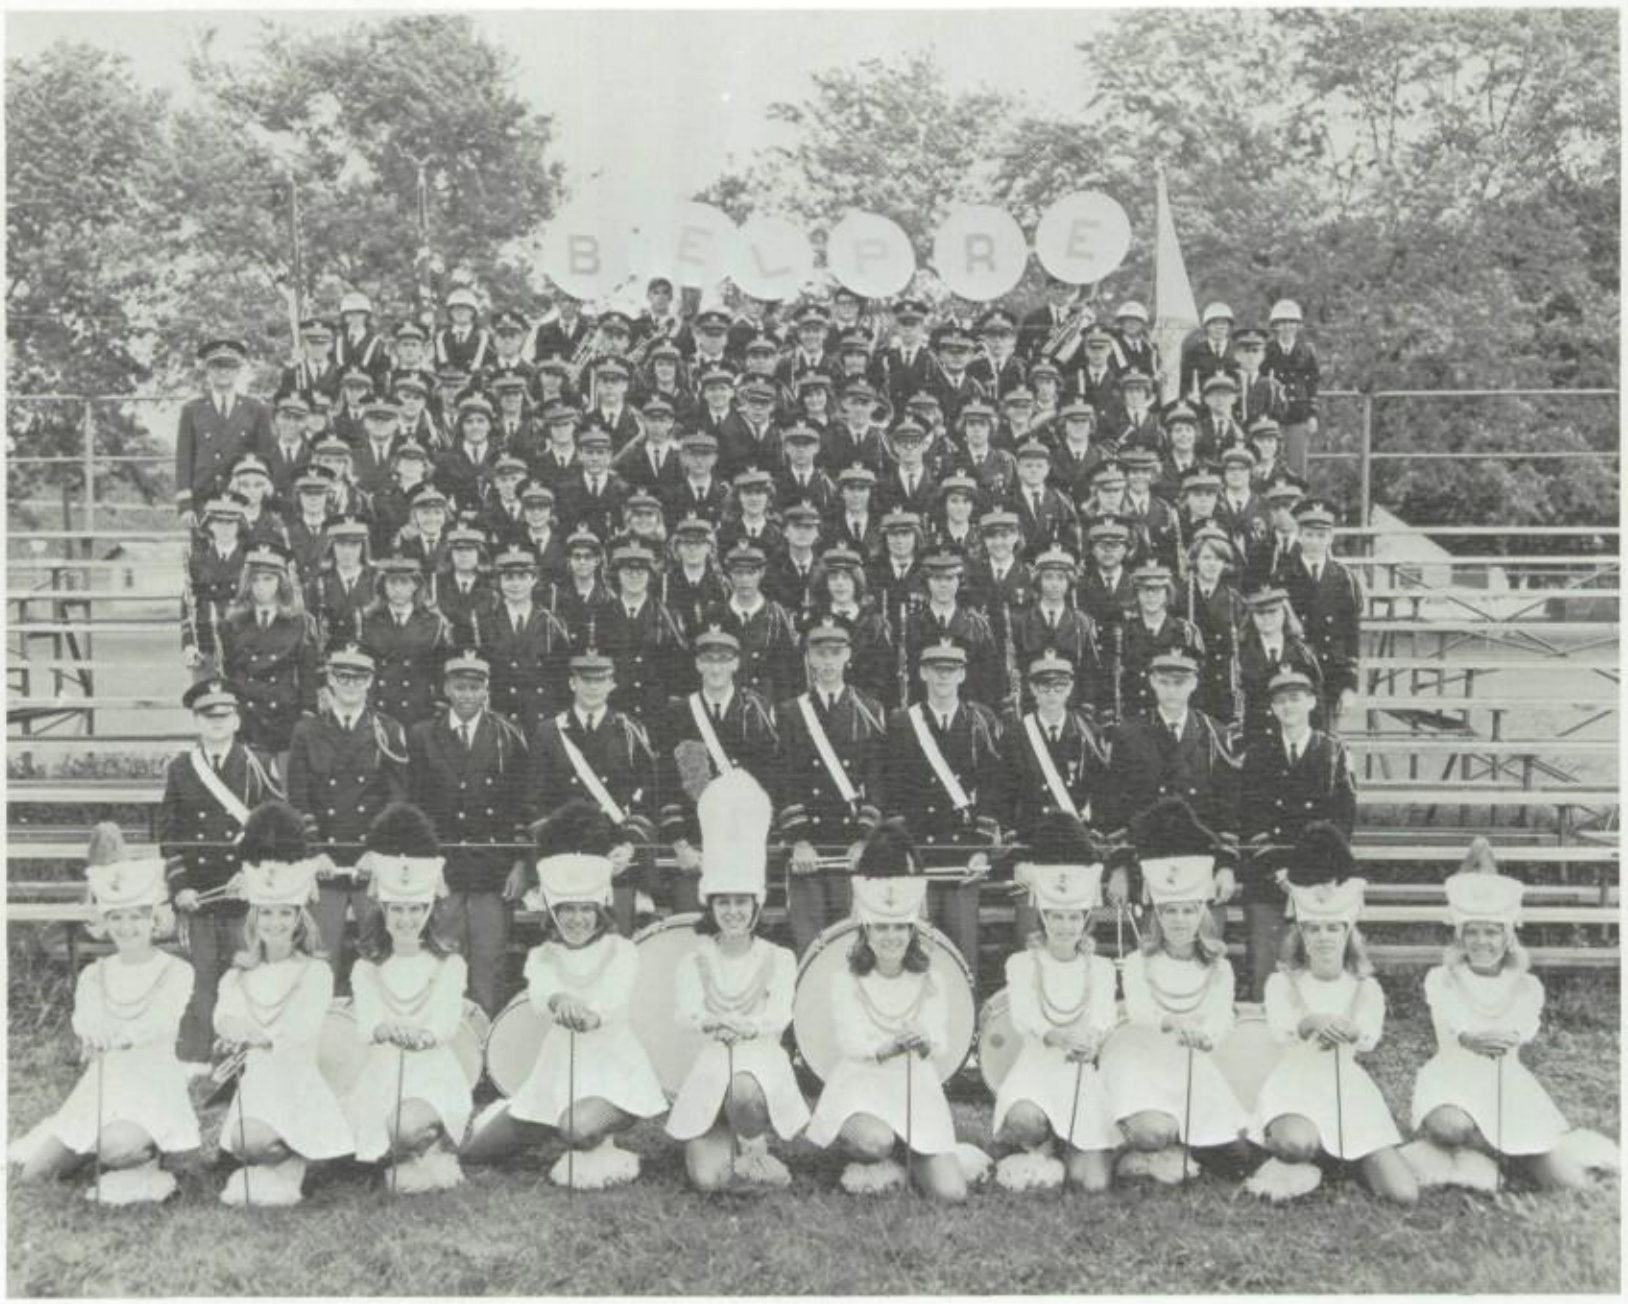
MUSIC



Belpre High School Band



1966-67 was an outstanding year for the Belpre High School Band. Many honors and awards were added to their previous record: two "first" place awards at the Fifth Annual Band-O-Rama in Marietta; a "superior" rating at the District Competition in Ironton; a "second" and "third" rating in competition with the best bands east of the Mississippi River at the Virginia Beach Music Festival in June 1966; an impressive performance at the Spring Concert in April 1967. The Belpre Band has been very deserving of the recognition they have received, which makes us swell with pride.

This has been a very productive year for the Belpre High School Band, because behind every band is a man that keeps urging them on to greater pinnacles of success. This one man who works constantly with the Belpre High School Band, Jr. Band & Beginner Band should be honored for his time, effort, and patience by the school. He has done a tremendous job building this band and establishing its reputation as a fine marching and concert band. We wish to thank you, Mr. Vaughn, for a job well done and we hope that you will continue to make the Belpre High School Band the best in the District. We know wherever the band travels the audience will remember not only the fine performance but also the man responsible for its excellence - Mr. Vaughn.

Acquiring the school spirit needed to cheer our athletes to victory, would be impossible without the lively Pep Band. The enthusiasm of the Pep Band and their music is contagious.

Senior Bandsmen

The senior bandsmen would like to thank those who have helped to make their band a success: Mr. Vaughn, their fellow band members, the student body, and the band boosters. The senior bandsmen have dedicated many long years to the band and it is their hope that the upcoming bandsmen will work as diligently to uphold the reputation of the Belpre High School Band.
